Independent Auditor's Report

To M/s Board of Directors
Palestinian Investment Promotion Agency "PIPA"
Ramallah – Palestine

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statement

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the accompanying statement of Receipts and Disbursements of Palestinian Investment Promotion Agency "PIPA" – Pages 4 to 9, for the year ended December 31, 2016, and notes to the financial statement of Receipts and Disbursements including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, except for the effect of the matter described in the "Basis for Qualified Opinion" below, the accompanying financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts and disbursements for the period from January 1, 2016, to December 31, 2016 in accordance with Cash Basis of accounting described in Note No.(2).

Basis for Qualified Opinion

- PIPA's policy is to prepare the accompanying statement using cash basis of accounting. Based on cash basis of accounting, revenues were recognized when received, not when earned; and expenses were recognized when paid, not when incurred.
- Outstanding items in bank reconciliations were not processed and currency exchange rate transaction was not prepared because Ministry of Finance and Planning has not closed the accounts since the year 2011.

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of this report.

We are independent of the Agency in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants registered under Board of Auditing Profession, which are inconformity with the code of ethics of accountants registered under Palestinian Association of Certified Public Accountants, in line with the ethical requirements related to our audit of the financial statements in Palestine, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with those requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting policies described in note No.(2) and other relevant laws and regulations, and for such internal control as management determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the agency's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Agency or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Management is responsible for overseeing the agency's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the foundation's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the agency's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the agency to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statement, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statement represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate, with the management regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements.

The agency keeps properly organized accounting records, which matches, in all material respects, the accompanying financial statement.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is the Executive Director, Jamal Milhem.
